ASRF Rules and Guidelines:

JUDGING:

The provision of Show Stewards, the assignment of judging classes and the adherence to national show rules is the responsibility of the Australian Street Rod Federation (ASRF). Any enquires, issues or complaints regarding these rules and/or judgements should be referred to the ASRF. Judging will commence 9:00 am Saturday 17th June 2017. Bonnet, boot and doors must be open if internal judging is required. For an undercarriage to be judged, wheels stands are essential.
Judging fee: $20

CLASSES:

All classes are dependent upon sufficient numbers of entries and sections may be expanded or combined according to the entries received. To be eligible for Street Rod or Street Machine classes, a vehicle must be driven a minimum of 50 metres into the show facility, to be witnessed by an ASRF Steward.

Competition Class includes ANDRA and CAMS class vehicles issued with a current log book. All classes will be verified by ASRF Stewards. No changes will be made to Exhibitors' classifications once the show opens.

AWARDS:

Prestige Awards:

Given entry numbers, awards for Top Street Rod, Top Street Machine, Top Competition and Top Bike will be presented. All prestige awards are of equal value and status. There must be a minimum of ten vehicles judged in each section to attain these awards.

Class Awards:

All classes as determined by the Stewards will be presented with place awards.

Contingency Awards:

All Exhibitors are eligible for Engine, Undercarriage, Interior, Standard and Custom Paint awards. (NB: Top Interior not applicable for Competition classes.)

Display Awards:

These awards are presented for Best Club Display, Best Individual Display, Best Displayed Vehicle and Best Show Theme Display.
